

Home and access map

Following the deconfinement and within the framework of the sanitary measures put in place by the government, the University of Pau and Pays de l'Adour reopens its doors to its users under certain conditions.

From June 15, 2020, doctoral students are authorized to resume their activities in the laboratories according to the organizations they have set up.

The secretariat of the SEA Doctoral School is now open and ready to welcome you.

Before going to our premises, it is however necessary to make an appointment. For that, please write to us at edsciences@univ-pau.fr or contact us on 05 59 40 81 95.

In addition, the usual entrance to the Doctoral School is currently closed. To come to our premises, it is mandatory to go through the administrative entrance of the building Droit Economie Gestion (DEG), opposite the west entrance of the campus, please see the access map below. When entering the building, you will have to write down your name and arrival time in the register that you will find at the entrance. Coming out, you will have to note your exit time in this same register.

Barrier gestures and rules for physical distance are used throughout the DEG building. Remember to bring a mask before coming.
